THE LITTLE BROWN JUG

MEREDITH NICHOLSON. AT KILDARE

Copyright, 1908, by the Bobbs-Merrill Co.

CHAPTER XIX.

In the Red Bungalow.

"What do you think?" cried Mrs Atchon their return. "We have a new guest." "In the coal cellar?" inquired her Dangerfield's! And what do you think? It At a nod from Col. Daubenspeck the governor of South Carolina."

"Oh, Nellie!" gasped Ardmore. we're building there, and I learned from of apples found in his orchard beyond the rector that Miss Osborne, with only the Raccoon. a maid, was stopping at that wretched hole called the Majestic Hotel. I had bing his chin, "that the adjutant genmet Miss Osborne in Washington last eral of North Carolina is suffering from winter, and you may forget, Tommy, that on our mother's side I am a Daughter of the Seminale War a speciety of which of the Seminole War, a society of which tant general of South Carolina, "for She seemed reluctant to come, but I simply would not take no, and I am to send for her at 4 o'clock."

Sewed in the pocket."

"If you will return that garment to me, general," said Ardmore, "I will see that

"Miss Osborne's presence is not only sponded Jerry, "but I shall join you in sence from the field of danger." welcoming her. I have heard that the ancestor through whom Barbara Osborne derives membership in the Daughters of the Seminole War was afterward constitutions. derives membership in the Daughters of the Seminole War was afterward convicted of robbing an orphan of whose estate he was the trusted executor, and such being the case I feel that the commonest Christian charity demands that monest Christian charity demands that should treat her with the most kindly consideration. I shall gather some roses, with your permission, and have them waiting in her room when she arrives, with my card and my compliments."

Ardmore had rarely been so busy as during the afternoon. Several more newspaper correspondents were found prowling around the estate, and they were added to the howling mob in the Ardsley their instructions with interest. They were all commissioned to find the lost governors of North and South Carolina; rested him for moonshining and he servented to have a south carolina; rested him for moonshining and he servented him for moonshining him for m

"It has all happened very handily for us," said Collins; "we've got the highest priced newspaper talent in the world right under our hands, and before we turn them loose we'll dictate exactly what history is to know of these dark proceedings. Those fellows couldn't get anything out of either Kildare or Turner's for some time, as Paul's men have cut the wires and Cooke has operators at the railway stations to see that nothing is sent out."

Griswold lifted his brows in amazement and turned toward Jerry.

'If that is the case, Miss Dangerfield. I salute you! I am sorry to confess, however, that I did not myself see the man who was captured by my friends at the church, owing, it appears, to Miss Dangerfield's prompt and daring action, and the regrettable cowardice of my men. I want to say to you, gentlemen, in all priced newspaper talent in the world proved to him that he's lost out, and that at what you tell me. Our prisoner is the real Mr. Appleweight is in his jail, not ours, we'll have to find Gov. Dangerfield, and be mighty quick about ft," replied Ardmore. "Paul says there's a battery of South Carolina artillery guarding the Dilwell County jail, and that they've fooled the people into thinking None of the South Carolina officers had Appleweight in the Mingo jail know their ance of the State soldlery along the It would be nasty to lose that er; but Ardmore warmly dissented ed, he maintained, in so large a house as Ardsley. At Appomattox and in many other cases that he recalled, 'the opponents met in humble farmhouses. It would be well, however, to have the meetthus become historic, but it would never do to have it take place in the Ardsley

There should be great difficulty in securing pens and paper," Ardmore continued, "and we must decline to accept the swords of our fallen foes." They finally agreed on the red bunga-low as convenient and sufficiently modest for the purpose. And so it was arranged.

A few minutes before 5 the flag of North Carolina was hung from the wide veranda of the bungalow. At the door stood an armed militiaman. Col. Daubenspeck had been invited to be present and he appeared accompanied by several other officers in full uniform. Word of the meeting place had been sent through the lines to the enemy, and the messenger rode back with Griswold, who was followed quickly by the adjutant general of South Carolina and half a dozen other officers. The guard saluted as Griswold ran up the steps of the veranda, and a or Ardmore met him and greeted him formally.

At the end of a long table Jerry Dangerfield sat with her arms folded. She wore, as befitting the occasion, a gray riding dress and a gray felt hat perched a trifle to one side.

She bowed coldly to Griswold, whose hand, as he surveyed the room and glanced out at the flag that fluttered in the doorway, went to his mustache with that gesture that Ardmore so greatly disliked; but Griswold again bowed gravely to his adversaries.

'Miss Dangerfield, and gentlemen," began Griswold, with an air of addressing supreme tribunal, "I believe this whole matter depends upon the arrest of one Appleweight, a well-known outlaw of North Carolina-beg your pardon-" It was Jerry who interrupted him, her

"It is for me to ask your pardon, Miss Dangerfield! Let us agree that this person is an unworthy citizen of any State, and proceed. It has been your endeavor to see this man under arrest in South Carolina, thus relieving North Carolina cr her chief executive of responsibility air somehow seemed charged with elector him. We, on our side, have used tricity, and all bent forward, straining Jerry nodded affirmatively.

Then, Miss Dangerfield, and gentlemen, must tell you that you have lost your tention, for Appleweight spent last in jail at Kildare, and to secure safe retention there, we generously t your State a few of our militia to and him. The proceeding was a trifle -but the peculiar situation seemed Justify us."

There are not two Bill Appleweights," marked Col. Daugenspeck. "I assure ou that the real criminal spent last ight in jail at Turner Court House, guarded by trustworthy men, and we are ble to produce him."

The quickest way to settle this point: Prof. Griswold, is by bringing in your his appearance. He crossed to the table man," remarked Ardmore icily "On the other hand"-and Griswold's tone was confident-"as there is no reason for doubt that we have the real Appleweight, and as we are on your territory and in a measure your guests, it is only fair that you produce the man you ison, glowing before Jerry and Ardmore believe to be Appleweight, that we may have a look at him first."

"Certainly," said Jerry. "Our prisoner does not deny his identity. It gives "No, in the blue room, adjoining Miss us pleasure to produce him."

is none other than the daughter of the orderly at the door ran off to where Cooke and the prisoner waited. In the interval there was a general ex-

"Why, what's the matter?" demanded change of introductions at the bungalow.

Mrs. Atchison. "I had gone in to TurThe adjutant general of South Carolina" Mrs. Atchison. "I had gone in to Tur-ner's to look at that memorial church fing Ardmore upon the deadly character

Miss Osborne is the president general. I of our scouts picked up a darky in the hope Miss Osborne's presence here will highway a while ago who had on a uninot be offensive to you, Miss Dangerfield. form dress coat with the initials 'R. G.'

it reaches Col. Gillingwater by special "Miss Osborne's presence is not only messenger, where, upon his couch of agreeable to me, Mrs. Atchison," repain, he chafes over his enforced ab-prisoner—"to state whether you are not known by one or both of these names?" The man nodded his head and grumbled a reluctant affirmative.

"Prof. Griswold," Ardmore went on, the gentleman in charge of the prisoner is Roger Cooke, for many years in the secret service of the United States. He now conducts a private agency and is in my employ. Mr. Cooke, I will ask you cellars. Collins searched them and read their instructions with interest Theorem weight?"

governors of North and South Carolina; and a number were instructed to investigate a rumor that North Carolina was about to default her bonds through malfeasance of the State treasurer. It was clear, from the fact that practically every newspaper in New York had sent its best man to the field, that the world waited anxiously for news from the waited anxiously for news from the may not know, by Miss Geraldine Dan-border. came upon the captive, much to her own surprise.

I want to say to you, gentlemen, in all "When we've settled with Griswold and frankness, that I am greatly astonished Ardmore was trying not to show too they're North Carolina troops, and no ever seen Appleweight, as they fived rebody can get within four blocks of the mote from the scene of his exploits. Habjail. They must have somebody in jail ersham's men, who had so signally failed at Kildare. I don't like the loks of it. In the descent upon Mount Nebo Church, hope those men we left guarding old had taken to the woods on the appearder, and could not be found to identify old chap after all the trouble he's given the man seized at the house on the creek. Habersham had discreetly declined to They'll keep him or eat him, if I know support Griswold's venture at the last Jerry-a pleasing figure to contemplate his chances of political preferment in In white lawn and blue ribbons—suggest—the future; or worse things might, indeed that the meeting take place in the library, as more like an imperial council supported the armed invasion of North chamber; but Ardmore was place in the future; or worse things might, indeed by hot water, and the consideration was $6,500. The purchaser, Mrs. Sarah Ambier, it is understood, will occupy the property as her residence. Carolina by South Carolina militia. from this. A peace should never be sign-ed, he maintained, in so large a house as tured the stranger in the house on the creek had pronounced the man Appleweight, and their statement had been accepted and emphasized when the man was taken before Griswold, to whom he ing on the estate, for the property would had stubbornly refused to make any statement whatever.

"Now that you cannot deny that we ave the real Appleweight," began Jerry, "who is, you must remember, a prisoner of the State of South Carolina, and must be returned to the Mingo County jail at once, I think we may as well look at our prisoner, Prof. Griswold. He may e one of Mr. Appleweight's associates he man you hold is of very little inter-said Griswold, "he is not Appleweight, the original blown in the bot-ien we don't care about him and I "Or," remarked Ardmore, "I might uite insane, declaring himself to be ne governor of South Carolina, and I he governor of South Caronna, and becked him up in a cornerib for safe chin slightly. "who would impersonate the governor of South Carolina would. beyond question, be uttery insane and an object of compassion. Prof. Griswold, will you please produce your imaginary Appleweight, as at this hour Mrs. Atchison usually serves tea. Let us, there-fore, make haste."

One of Griswold's retinue ran off to ummon the prisoner, who was guarded by half a dezen soldiers near at hand.

The company in the bungalow were all laughing heartily at some sally by the adjutant general of South Carolina, who insisted upon giving a light note to the proceedings, when hurried footsteps sounded on the veranda and a sergeant appeared in the doorway and saluted. The adjutant general, annoyed at being fittle fists clenching, a glint of fire in interrupted in the telling of a new story frowned and bade the sergeant product his prisoner. At once a man was thrust into the room, a tall man, with a short dark beard and slightly stooping shoulders. The strong light at his back made it difficult for the people grouped about the table to see his face clearly, but the rery effort to lodge Appleweight in fail for a sight of the captive. As he stood your side of the State line. Am I framed in the doorway his face was slowly disclosed to them, and there appeared to be a humorous twinkle in his eyes. Before ony one spoke, he broke out in a hearty laugh. Then a cry rose piercingly in the quiet room—a cry of amazement from the lips of Jerry Dangerfield, who had taken a step forward. "Oh, papa!" she cried. "The governor!" roared Col. Daubenspeck, leaping across the table. "It's Gov. Dangerfield!" shouted half a dozen men in chorus, At this moment Mrs. Atchison and Miss ranged themselves at the back of the room.

The governor of North Carolina alone seemed to derive any pleasure from the confusion and astonishment caused by Barbara Osborne stole softly in and

and took his daughter's hand. TO BE CONTINUED TO-MORROW,

ENGLISH MILITANT SUFFRAGETTE HERE.

REAL ESTATE NOTES.

Snannon & Luchs report the sale of the one of 181 houses recently built by Harry H. Nolan will do the construction work. Wardman. The lot is thirty four feet wide noment; to do so would, he pleaded, ruin and runs back to a wide alley. It is cupy the property as her residence.

Willige, Gibbs & Daniel have sold for Mrs. Gertrude M. Gooch, of Cincinnati, similar to others built in the same neighborhood, to Emil W. Lyall, lots 17 to 20, inclusive, in square 2906, North Columbia Heights, facing Shepherd street, between Kansas and Georgia avenues northwest. The lots have a combined frontage of comprising an area of 15,600 square feet. It is understood that approximately $6,000 was paid for the property, which will be shortly improved by the purchaser by the erection of modern brick dwellings.

ciudes four of the new houses recently kinds of sports this season erected there, which were valued at $4,600 each. The houses are twenty feet the boys and will at once round them in-

David N. Rust, jr., for ten years associated with H. L. Rust, has opened a pete: exchange him for a rufflan I captured real estate office at 1400 H street. Mr. Lynch, left end; Babbington, left myself down on the Raccoon. He seemed Rust intends to conduct a general real tackle; Middledorf, left guard; Ashton,

"Any man," said Jerry, lifting her jected by the Oriental Building Associa- backfield.

tion, No. 6, at the corner of Sixth and F streets northwest. The building will be 25 by 100 feet and five stories high. It Snannon & Luchs report the sale of the two-story and attic eight-room brick resdence at 1300 Otis street northwest. It is A. Goenner prepared the plans and John Allard & Appleby have taken out a constitute a row of six-room b the estimated cost of which is $24,000. The Play Engineers and M. A. C.

The fast Holy Name eleven have taken a decided brace and games with the 100 feet by a uniform depth of 156 feet, heavy Engineer team for next Sunday and the clever Maryland Athletic Club, of Baltimore, for Saturday, November 6, have been annexed to the schedule. The management recently had been Belt, O'Brien & Co. have sold to George Ashton, and Acting Manager Hollander weakened by the departure of Manager e one of Mr. Appreweight's associated C. Pumphrey, for the Sherman estate, found it difficult to date up for the lots on the west side of Eleventh teams. Now that the former manager street northwest, between Clifton and is again at the heim, things look as if Euclid streets, for $12,000. The same deal Holy Name will be connected with all

"Jug, if you please!" interposed Ardwide and have six rooms each. The entire transaction amounted to $30,400.

"Line to shape for next Sunday's struggle.
Capt. Carr has not definitely stated the ine-up against the strong Engineer team, but it is thought the following will com-center; Berger, right guard; Kelly or Nebb, right tackle; Kerrigan or O'Con-A permit was issued yesterday for the orection of the new office building pro-

SAYINGS OF MRS. SOLOMON.

Being the Confessions of the Seven Hundredth Wife.

Translated by HELEN ROWLAND.

Hear now the "Maiden's Psalm," oh my daughter, and consider its words of wisdom! Marriage is my destiny; it shalt not escape me! It maketh me wander unto many pink teas and cotillions. It keepeth me going!

Yea, though I prefer a single life and mine own independence, yet must I follow the husband-hunt; for my family expecteth it. Le, my father looketh upon me as a "burden;" my mother shall not regard me as a "failure;" my brothers tremble lest they shall have to support me. Stenography and a cheap boarding-house stare me in the face; and the vision of "eternal maidenhood" in a fifth floor back, and cold ham for luncheon are abhorrent unto me. Though I bind myself in corsets of steel, though I limp upon French heels, though I burden my head with the weight of eighteen puffs. I shall not faint; for the thought of the time when I shall dwell all day in a kimono comforteth me. Then, patronizing married women shall not call me: "Poor Thing!" Then, shall I have "Mrs." on my calling cards, and a personal maid, yea and an expensive buildog.

Then, shall I be invited to chaperon other damsels, and I shall patronize them, and flirt with their escorts. And if I become a widow, I shall marry again without effort; for unto men, love is but a game of "Follow the Leader!"

Now shall I go forth upon the Love Chase, and my feet shall not stumble. Lo, with whatsoever I wed I will be satisfied; for I know that husbands, like unto birthday gifts, are not a matter of choice but of

At twenty I shall not wait for an affinity, lest at thirty I be contented with an asininity. Yea, I am meek! I shall not be cast down though I receive a lemon; for I know that in the matrimonial market, grape fruit is scarce. Surely, luck and success shall follow me, and I shall dwell at last in a wearing buttons. Yet, let not him that falleth to my lot blame me that we are illmated; for I shall say unto him, "Go to! Thou were the best I could get!" Selah!

West Side apartment, with real Daghestan rugs on the floor and hall boys

DAILY COURT RECORD

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

DEEDS OF TRUST.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Clifton M. Walker, 25, and Julia R. Bakersmith Rev. E. M. Corbett.

Lawrence W. Moore, 19, and Louise J. Hall, 21. Rev. J. F. Mackin. Mayer Shapiro, 21, and Lena Adel, 20. Rev. G.

Silverstone.

Walter F. Lane. 30, and Einma B. Moran, 20, both of Sterling, Va. Rev. E. E. Oliver.

Lee Carter, 53, and Helen Lindsay, 24. Rev. G.

Richard Hughes, 34, and Estelle Lee, 22. Rev.

Largest Morning Circulation.

Always the Same.

lev. R. P. Williams.

Rev. J. B. McLaughlin

Supreme Court of the United States. Present: The Chief Justice, Mr. Justice Harlan, Mr. Justice Brewer, Mr. Justice White, Mr. Mary P. Many P. Man

JUSTICE BARNARD. No. 28746. Siford vs. Siford; reference to examiner. Attorneys, W. A. Coombe-W. J. Neale, No. 28882. Kosack vs. Johnson et al.; rule returnable October 23. Attorneys, Gittings & Chamber-able October 29. Attorneys, Gittings & Chamber-lain, No. 28382. Dunn ett al. vs. Espery et al.; decree pro confesso. Attorney, W. A. Johnston.

No. 18375. Turner et al. vs. Moxley et al.; trustees directed to make repairs. Attorneys, Padgett & Forrest—A. E. L. Leckie.
No assignment for to-day.

Circuit Court No. 1.

JUSTICE WRIGHT.

No. 48767. Ross et al. vs. Stearn; death of plaintiff, James A. Teoner, suggested, and heirs-at-law, who are already parties plaintiff, granted leave to prosecute in place of said plaintiff. Attorneys, G.
E. Reynolds and Bradley & Bradley—B. F. LeighCleveland Park—Square 2076, lots 85 and 86; South
Boston Realty Company to Anna C. F. Rogers, Cleveland Park—Square 2076, lots 87; Same to Eleunor C. Coit, $10.

Kosciusko place—Lots 1 and 2. block 6; Joseph Wahler et ux. to Carl Wahler, $10.

Kosciusko place—Lots 17 and 18, block 4; same to Rose M. Wahler, $10.

Kosciusko place—Lots 17 and 18, block 4; same to Rose M. Wahler, $10.

Kosciusko place—Lots 14, block 4; same to William H. Bates, $10.

Ziff and 281/ M street northwest—Square 1212, part of lets-9 and 10 and 181; the Washington Home for Incurables to Robert Allen, $10.

DOWN MISSISSIPPI

Continued from Page One, No. 48767. Ross et al. vs. Stearn; death of plain-tiff, James A. Tooner, suggested, and heirs-at-law, who are already parties plaintiff, granted leave to prosecute in place of said plaintiff. Attorneys, G. E. Reynolds and Bradley & Bradley—B. F. Leigh-

No. 48766. Same vs. Notes et al; same. Attorneys, ame. No. 48377. Gorman vs. Florer; death of plaintiff suggested; order striking cause form calendar. Attorneys, H. L. Franc and Ivan Heidman—J. J. Darlington and C. J. Wrightsman.
No. 49859. Anderson, administrator, vs. Smith; verdict for defendant. Attorneys, L. J. Mather and E. N. Hopewell—Maddox & Gatley.

Assignments for to-day:
No. 35, Jones vs. Capital Traction Company. Attorneys, Millan & Smith-Perry & Son and Dunlop, No. 37, Jones vs. Capital Traction Company. At-

No. 4l. Hamilton vs. Brightwood Railway Company. Attorneys, Downing & Berry-Darlington.
No. 81. Lohr et al. vs. Title Guaranty and Surety Company. Attorneys, Balderston-Gittings & Chamberlin.

No. 26. Falconer et al. vs. McDonald. Attorneys, Perry—Hamilton, Colbert, Yerkes & Hamilton..

No. 113. Nauman vs. City and Suburban Railway Company. Attorneys, Wolf & Rosenberg—Darling ton.

No. 61. Tyssowski et al. vs. F. H. Smith Co. Attorneys, Nath. and C. B. Wilson-Ralston & Siddons and Worthington.

No. 125. McKay Co. vs. Buchanan et al. Attorness, Walker-John & Peyser.

No. 127. Douglas vs. Davis et al. Attorneys, Jeffords, Douglas & Douglas-Mackall & Strasburger.
No. 129. Gaskins va. Washington Railway and Electric Company. Attorneys, Webb & Porrest-

Circuit Court No. 2.

CHIEF JUSTICE CLABAUGE. No. 50787. Dore vs. Capital Traction Company; on trial. Attorneys, W. C. Balderston and Hayden Johnson-R. R. Perry & Son and G. T. Dunlop. No. 49507. Jeykel vs. City and Suburban Railway; motion for new trial. Attorneys, E. L. Gies -J. J. Darlington.

arlington.
ents for to-day:
Griffith et ux, vs. Metropolitan Life In-Berry & Minor and Rowland, No. 51675. Mackenzie vs. Crouse. Attorneys,

No. 32. Brown vs. Philadelphia, Baltimore and nington Railway Compeny, Attorneys, Baker, iil & Miller-McKenney & Flannery, 32. Waldron vs. Diendonne, Attorneys, John-No. 8. Mulhall vs. Capital Traction Company. Attorneys, Ambrose & Smith-Perry & Son and

Criminal Court No. 1.

JUSTICE GOULD. United States vs. William Johnson; assault with gerous wespon; recognizance in $500, with Frank razzano surety, taken. United States vs. Frank R. Harding; personal re-Assignments for to-day: United States vs. Grant Mason. United States vs. Ciarence Atwell.

Criminal Court No. 2.

JUSTICE STAFFORD. No. 28681. United States vs. Melville Pinkney, William Jackson, James Pinkney; housebreaking verdict not guilty each defendant. Attorney, M. E.

No. 28679. United States vs. William C. Groome; arceny; plea not guilty. Defendant's attorneys, I. A. Toomey and Mark Stearman. 26598. United States vs. Thomas Clagett; as Assignments for to-day: United States vs. Charles T. Sanford. United States vs. Jay Wood. United States vs. Cornelius Parham.

Probate Court,

JUSTICE BARNARD. Estate of Edward H. Reeves; order appoin collector; bond, $500. Attorney, W. W. Bride. Estate of Elizabeth M. Simpkins; order gran ters testamentary; bond, $2,000. Attorney, W. E.

Ambrose.

Estate of Carleton E. Baker; order granting let-ters of administration; bond, $300.

Estate of Nannie C. Beard; petition for letters testamentary. Attorney, George Kearney.

Estate of Mary C. Parrish; will dated December 1908, and petition truey, W. A. McKenr ion for letters testamentary. At-Estate of John E, Libbey; order for payment of dividends. Attorneys, Baker, Sheehy & Hogan. Estate of Benjamin F, Barnes; will dated July 13, 1909, filed.

Estate of Anne Keiseeker; petition for letters testamentary. Attorney, W. A. Dorch.

Estate of Robert Clarkson; petition for letters testamentary. Attorney, Paca Oberlin.

Estate of Martin Naughton; will dated June 19, Estate of Daniel Moran; petition for letters testa-mentary. Attorney, E. L. Lubey.

Bankruptey Court, JUSTICE ANDERSON. No. 361. In re Thomas E. Waggaman; sale

District Court.

JUSTICE STAFFORD. No. 839. In re-condemnation for Petworth School; report and award of commissioners. No. 848. United States vs. Seven Boxes Seedless Raisins; time for filing ansyer extended. No. 671. In re damages for change of grade; order finally ratifying appraisement of commission, lots 41 and 32, square 722.

Equity Suits.

No. 2882. Edward Kosack vs. E. Olivia Johnson and W. W. Sander; injunction. Attorneys, Gittings Chamberlin.
No. 28883. William F. Lillie vs. Daniel F. Lillie, c., et al.; substitute trustee. Attorney, L. C. No. 2888i. Clarence E, Beckett vs. Truman D. Beckett, infant, et al.; to sell real estate. Attorneys, Lester & Price.
No. 28885. Rachel V. Reeder vs. George M. Emmerich, treasurer, et al.; substitute trustee. Attor-

Lawsuits.

merich, treasurer, et ney, J. A. Maedel.

No. 52046. The Mercantile Saving Fund Society No. 529N. Mary Warren, &c., vs. Caroline Reichart; damages, $10,000. Attorneys, Birney & Wood-art; damages, $20,000. Attorneys No. 52048. The National Capital Bank vs. Charles A. Lohr; fudgment Municipal Court, $300. Attorley, W. H. Marlow, Jr.
No. 5299. Edwin W. Poole vs. Capital Traction Company; damages, $20,000. Attorney, E. F. Collo-

No. 52050. Samuel Saks vs. Solomon Schield Harry Eisenback, Affred Eisenback, and Otto Erler; damages, $10,600. Attorney, L. Tobriner, No. 52051. William H. Sylvester, vs. The Wash-ington and Maryland Realty Company; certiorari. No. 5000.

Attorney, W. A. Johnston.

No. 50002. Edmund K. Fox, trading as A. F.
Fox Company, vs. Timothy L. Lewis and Walter I.
Hopkins; account, 8:25%. Attorney, P. H. Marshall.

Berkeley Rye

No. 540. In re Samuel Saks; involuntary. Attor- 512 F Street N. W. 'Phone Main 1141, ners, Wolf & Rosenberg.

EXCURSIONS.

BORFOLK & WASHINGTON STEAMBOAT COMPANY

ux. to Norman E. Taylor, $10, to Norman E. T

Continued from Page One.

C. Pumphrey et ux, et al. to George C. Furbe-shaw, $16.
O street northwest, between Sixteenth and Seven-teenth streets—Square 181, lots 125 and 127; Mary L. Tait et vir to Edward T. Noble, $8,600.
O street northwest, between Sixteenth and Seven-teenth streets—Square 181; lots 125 and 127; Ed-ward T. Noble to Mary C. Pefferman, $1. dressed an audience of 10,000 there. Here is what he had to say on "pork-barrel"

"We have spent a great deal of money

"I would like to clear away a good payments, 6 per cent, puare 3T.—Parts of lets 1 and 2: John Henry Miller et ux. to George M. Emmerich and Douglass S. Mackall, trustees, to secure Washington Six Per Cent Permanent Building Asciation, $800.

Square 616—Lots 2 to 29; Louisa Eller et vir to Ernest L. Schmidt and George M. Emmerich, trustees, to secure German-American Building Association, $2,500.

Le Drott Park—Lot 36, in block 11; Clara S. Leech et vir to William W. Boarman and Percy H. Russell, trustees, to secure George C. Boarman, $1,500. 3 years, 5 per cent, semi-annually. Russell, trustees, to secure George C. Boarman, $1,500, 3 years, 5 per cent, semi-annually.

Square 2519—Lot 806; J. Edmund Smith to Frank
J. Diendonne and James Berry, trustees, to secure Perpetual Building Association, $7,000.

Square 455—One-half of lot 8, part of lot 10, and part of lot 7; Anderson R. Laccy et ux. to National Savings and Trust Company, trustee, to secure American Security and Trust Company, $70,300, 3 years, 5 per cent, semi-annually.

Strokland—Lots 18, and 19 in block 32. Wilbelming.

Merit Should Decide.

Square 5801-Lots 888 and 889; Samuel M. Prazier when done. "When you have determined that on the when you have determined that on the general principle of good to the entire and Loan Association, $5,000. and Loan Association, $5,000.

soland Park—Square 275, lots $5 and $6; George T. Dalton and Anna C. F. Rogers to James
S. Easley and William H. Shepherd, trustees.

do it, and if it shall turn out that some Easley and William H. Snepherd, trustees, to confirm title of guarantee.

GO II, and II II Shall turn out that confirm to confirm title of guarantee.

GO II, and II II Shall turn out that confirm to confirm title of guarantee.

GO II, and II II Shall turn out that confirm to confirm title of guarantee. Easley and William H. Shepherd, trustees, to confirm title of guarantee.

Mount Pleasant and Pleasant Plains—Part of lot nation that is not sustained by the facts, then that part of the country has got to ount Pleasant and Pleasant Plains—Part of lot 4. in block 33, Gov. Shepherd folio 137; John O. Green et ux. to John B. Larner and John A. Hamilton, trustees, to secure Washington Loan and Trust Company, $6,000, 3 years, 5 per cent. semi-annually. cent, semi-annually.

mare 200 Lots 23 to 104, inclusive; Harry Wardman and Themas Bones to B. Francis Saul and Waiter E. Hilton, trustees, to secure Harry M. ried out.

part to the Ohio. I am opposed to it. will reflect no credit on our business John B. Kershaw, 37, and Mary M. Rixley, 36,

The President was the guest of the Homer F. Garber, 23, and Sallie B. Reed, 22, both Honor F. Garber, S. and Shike B. Reell, 22, boar f Staunton, Va. Rev. Donald C. MacLeod. Benjamin F. Reid, 23, and Lena F. Mundy, 21, both of Staunton, Va. Rev. Denald C. MacLeod. Bennie H. Tisdale, 25, of Orange County, Va., and Gertrude E. Daniel, 22, of Madison County, Business Men's Association at a big incheon at the Planters' Hotel, and in the afternoon he went to East St. Louis where, with Vice President Sherman and Speaker Cannon, he took part in the dedication of the new Federal building. It Matthew G. Lepley, 23, and Elizabeth M. Reilly, 9. Rev. J. F. Eckenrode.

Joseph H. Talbot, 22, and Eva M. Houser, 19. Swung out into the river, and the milelong line of boats, all gayly decorated, James W. Morse, 24, of Riverdale, Md., and Emma Carter, 18, of Washington. Rev. J. B. Moand some of them with bands, dropped in Laughlin.

Jones C. Harton, 28, of Fort Washington, Md., and Etta Miller, 29, of Millers Creek, N. C. Rgy.
W. W. Barnes. To-morrow the President will stop at

FEEL NO ILL EFFECTS.

 Rev, E. M. Corbett.
 Arthur S. Harvey, 30, and Annie A. Sis, 21. Rev.
 J. D. Marr.
 Thomas C. Sellars, 25, of Montreal, Canada, and Irma M. Peixotto, 27, of Washington. Rev. U. G. Majority of Georgetown Footbaw Stars Out for Practice.

. Pierce.
L Jones Parker, 25, and Elsie A. Burgess, 23.
lev. C. E. Buck.
Lawrence W. Moore, 19, and Louise J. Hall, 21. ow a pretty hard pill by their defeat at the hands of North Carolina last Saturday, nevertheless they are not discouraged at the team's showing as a whole, and signal practice was as lively yesterday afternoon as at any time this year. Most of the regulars were in line and had no bad effects to show from their recent game.

Carrigan, the plucky little half back, enter was missing from the squad. middle of last week, is doing nicely and will be out in a few days. Only one more game separates the big contest with Virginia, and Georgetown may be depended on to do everything that will add improvement to her team.

Largest Morning Circulation.

Court of Appeals. Adjourned from day to day. Equity Court No. 1. JUSTICE ANDERSON. No. 28670. Freidlander vs. Loeb et al.; demurrer. No. 2861. Fisher vs. Matthews; same. Attorneys. S. V. Hayden—J. H. Lichliter. In re (lunsey) Prederick Dixon; fifth account of committee approved. No. 28234. Overholt vs. Matthews et al.; decree pro confesso ordered. Attorneys. G. H. Lamar—C. A. Keigwin and A. S. Huidekoper. No. 28200. Fullerton vs. Fullerton et al.; argued and submitteel. Attorneys, J. W. Latimer—W. J. Lambert. No assignment for to-day. Equity Court No. 2. States Realty Company to Charles E. Taylor, 510. Sile. Columbia Heights—Lot 60. in block 30; Cyras Mantz et al. to Milton Mantz, 510. Connecticut arenue—Square 1860, lot 2; right of way to construct sewer; Fulton R. Gordon to the District of Columbia, 51. Alley between Ninth street, Vermont avenue, T and U streets—Square 361, lots 29 to 37; William M. Meigs and Mary Meigs Taylor to District of Columbia, $12,000. Street, between Tenth and Eleventh streets northwest—Square 861, lot 79; Leave Washington (from 8th st. wharf), 5 p. m.; Oxionial Beach, 10 p. m. Northbound—Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday. Leave Washington (from Sth st. wharf), 5 p. m.; Oxionial Beach, 10 p. m. Northbound—Sunday, Wednesday, and Priday. Southbound—Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday. No assignment for to-day. Equity Court No. 2.

W. F. CARNE, JR., W. B. EMMERA, Vice President & Gen. Mgr.

on waterways. I do not think there has been spent as much to a good purpose Square 243-Lot 16; John T. Johnson et ux. to as it would have been had we adopted trus- some other theory and some other tees, to secure Christine Ohl Ponickan, $6,500, 2 to 4 years, 5 per cent, semi-annually.

LTY FARD—Part of lot I, section 1; John Brooks that. I do not think that we have now to Victor Mynsbridge and Aaron S. Caywood, reached a time in the history of the trustees, to secure Mary P. Mynsbridge, $500, 1 to 50 months, 6 per cent.

unare 1055-105 105; Howard W. Stein et ux. to Frank T. Rawlings and Frank S. Collins, trustees, to secure Asbury R. Taylor, $700, monthly rayments 6 per cent.

"I would like to clear away a good

Square 501-Part of lot 22: Edwin W. Riddle et ux. to Washington Loan and Trust Company, trustee, to secure Equitable Co-operative Building Association, $500.

Merit Should Decide. rolland—Lots is and 19, in block 32; Wilhelmina C. German to Henry H. Bergmann and Charles Schafer, trustees, to secure Northern Liberty German-American Building Association, No. 6. Show to William E. Edmonston and Louis R. Shaw to William E. Edmonston and Louis R. Peak, trustees, to secure Charles E. Marsh. $1.000, 2 years, 5 per cent, semi-annually, puare 1658—Part of lot 4; Robert Countee et ux. to Ernest L. Schmidt and George M. Emmerich, trustees, to secure German-American Building Association, $1,200. determine by all means at our command

"I know I value more intensely than I on each lot. hitchaven, St. Philip and Jacob-Lots 25 and 26. ever did in my life the intelligence, the in block 3; A. Perkins Myers et ux. to Jesse H.
Wilson and Leon S. Frey, trustees, to secure Citizens' Equitable Building Association, 84,000, quare 195—Lot 104; Julia E. Siesson, committee, to Herbert A. Gill and Edward McC. Jones, trustee, to secure Arlington Fire Insurance Company 8,600, 1 to 3 years 5 per cent semisance.

Opposes Pork Barrel.

pany, $6,000, 1 to 3 years, 5 per cent, semi-annu "Now, there is a proposition that we issue $500,000,000 or $1,000,000,000 worth of are 866-Lot 34; Thomas H. McKeown et ux. to bonds for a waterway, and then that we guare 155-Lot 157; Clayton E. Emig et ux. to Harry L. Rust and David N. Rust, ir., trustees, to secure Harold L. Johnson, $5,500, 3 years, 5 apportion part to the Mississippi, part to the Atlantic, part to the Missouri, and a , semi-annually, -Lot 54; George Furbershaw et ux, to W. Engel and Harry S. Welch, trustees, "I am opposed to it because it not only George W. Engel and Harry S. Welch, trustees, to secure Rose E. Engel, $2,800, 3 years, 5 per smells of the pork barrel, but it will be the pork barrel itself. Let every project stand on its bottom; let it prove itself Square 810—Lot 34; same to Robert Lee O'Brien and Alexander J. Schwartz, trustees, to secure George C. Pumphrey and George N. Palmer, $1,500, monthly payments, 6 per cent. by means of its friends, and by means of those who know whether it is to be profitable or not, and then enter upon it: but do not let us embark on a plan that mmon sense.'

Although the Hilltoppers had to swale who gained most of the ground for the Blue and Gray eleven, slightly wrenched his arm and has a few bruises to show after Saturday's game. McNulty is still a little lame. The star half back was James Bailey, 25, and Elizabeth Montgomery, 19. not able to put up the kind of game he usually does, and had he been in the pink of condition there might have been a different kind of story to tell. Cunniff at and Carrigan will probably be out this afternoon and practice signals. Smith, the Warwick star, who was injured the